Health Forms: Please familiarize yourself with our health service at <http://www.neu.edu/uhcs/> Massachusetts mandates that you must have proof of immunizations. The University will take steps to block you from Spring Semester registration if these forms are not on file. The health report forms for all proper vaccinations and medical clearances can be found at: <http://www.uhcs.neu.edu/forms.html>

Insurance: Massachusetts requires that all students have health insurance while enrolled in school. You can find information about University Health Insurance at www.bluecrossma.com/nushp. If you have your own health insurance, you may waive the insurance offered at: <http://www.uhcs.neu.edu/access/insurance.html>

MyNEU Account: On the top of the front page of the university web site, you will find the MyNeu portal. Please take the tour offered at that site and set up your account using the information sent to you when you confirmed your attendance.

Registration: You will find a list of your first courses on the url for your department. To register you will need to log into your myNEU account and follow the prompts, it is self-explanatory. More information can be found at <http://www.northeastern.edu/registrar/>

Husky Card/ NEU ID Card: <http://www.northeastern.edu/registrar/>
This website will tell you how to get your university ID card and the benefits of having one. Not only does it serve as your identification for the library and other spots on campus but also can get you student discounts around the city. Please be aware that you can not use the fitness center at the Marino Center without your Husky card!

E-Mail Account: Once we have entered your information on the Registrar's System, you will be assigned a free e-mail account and they will notify you of the e-address. The Info Commons in the Snell Library will assist you with combining your personal e-mail account with your NU e-mail account.

Cars on Campus: Everything you need to know about parking at Northeastern University is found here: <http://www.parking.neu.edu/>
You can get parking passes which enable you to park in the afternoons and evenings at a discounted rate. This is perfect for the graduate student with classes in the evening.

Orientation: Currently scheduled for September 7. Your department has posted details and instructions for the day on their NU web site. This is mandatory.

Text Books: Text book lists are provided by the department offices. In many cases, you will not receive the book list until you attend class and receive the syllabus. The bookstore does not stock the store until a week before term.

Discounts

There are many great happenings and good restaurants in Boston. Every month the Marino Center racks have a student coupon book which provides numerous coupons for restaurants, salon services and leisure activities.

For current and upcoming entertainment and cultural listings pick up the latest free editions of Improper Bostonian, Stuff & Nigh, the Weekly Dig, Boston Phoenix and the Metro. These are frequently placed in the Curry Student Center boxes outside the Bookstore.

www.citypass.com City Pass is a ticket booklet containing an actual admission ticket to the top attractions in Boston. With City Pass, you pay one substantially reduced price and avoid main entrance ticket lines at most attractions. This pass is more affordable than the reduced student rates frequently offered.
