

Northeastern
Bouvé College of Health Sciences

APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS

Change the lives of children and adults with autism and other special needs.

Northeastern University
Bouvé College of Health Sciences
Graduate School Admissions
123 Behrakis Health Sciences Center
360 Huntington Avenue
Boston Massachusetts 02115-5000

ABA | Understanding and Changing Behavior

The Northeastern Advantage

- ◎ Earn your degree at a top 100 university
- ◎ Experience a program designed for the 21st century learner
- ◎ Benefit from our 40-year commitment to quality education in Applied Behavior Analysis
- ◎ Study with faculty who have extensive, on-going clinical experience

Our commitment, Our programs

We are committed to quality education in Applied Behavior Analysis

Our Programs

- ◎ Certificate in Applied Behavior Analysis
- ◎ Master of Science in Applied Behavior Analysis
- ◎ Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies in Applied Behavior Analysis

Learn more at www.northeastern.edu/bouve

We Teach Competencies

Our skill-building curriculum provides you with tools to be effective behavior analysts. These tools will enable you to:

Assess behavior

Design effective interventions

Develop teaching programs

Determine preferences

Evaluate clinical outcomes

Build a professional portfolio that documents your skills.

You Change Lives

With your assistance they can:

Master behavioral teaching and treatment procedures and you can help others fulfill their potential.

- Achieve independence in daily life activities
- Communicate needs and wants
- Participate in community activities
- Acquire academic skills
- Reduce detrimental behaviors

Our programs fit your life style

Online & hybrid courses using state-of-the art tools give you the best of 21st century instruction.

- Classes are just a click or key tap away
- Flex-time courses fit your schedule
- Virtual classrooms link instructors and students
- Podcasts and other technologies allow you to learn on the go

Become a Board Certified Behavior Analyst

Our programs prepare you to take the Behavior Analyst Certification Board exam.

- Obtain requisite academic credit hours
- Learn necessary knowledge and skills
- Receive required supervision hours*

Supervision hours are acquired through our optional Learning Partnership Program.*

Build a professional social network

We help you to connect across distances.

Online networking is part of our curriculum. We teach you how to discover your peers' expertise and create a professional network that will allow you to continue your professional development through others.

We engage you in learning

Courses are instructor designed, student-driven.

- Discover knowledge through hands-on experiences
- Tailor course work to interests via requirement menus
- Share in team projects
- Participate in peer education

Apply

Review our application guidelines at:

www.northeastern.edu/bouve

or email:

bouvegrad@neu.edu