Andrew Mackie, MPAS, PA-C

Email: a.mackie@neu.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Academic:

05/15-present   Northeastern University, Bouvé College of Health Sciences, Physician Assistant Program
-Assistant Clincal Professor, Physician Assistant Studies

05/13-4/15   Johnson & Wales University, Center for Physician Assistant Studies; Providence, RI
-Assistant Professor, Physician Assistant Studies
-Academic Coordinator: Oversee curriculum & provide instruction in newly accredited 24 student PA program (students matriculated June 2014).

05/13-5/14   Northeastern University Physician Assistant Program; Boston, MA
-Guest lecturer: lectured on critical care topics in both 2013 & 2014

07/14-06/16   Northeastern University Physician Assistant Program; Boston, MA
-Adjunct Clinical Instructor

10/07 to 10/12:   UMassMemorial Medical Center; Worcester, MA
-Academic Coordinator: PA Critical Care Residency: teaching of PA residents in critical care including lectures, coordination of monthly 2 hour symposium, and also teach biweekly journal club to provide residents with Evidence-Based Medicine skills.

09/04 -12-04:   Mass College of Pharmacy & Health Science; Boston, MA
-Instructor: Physician Assistant Program

Andrew Mackie, MPAS, PA-C

Email: a.mackie@neu.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Clinical:

05/13-present   UMassMemorial Medical Center; Worcester, MA
-Per Diem PA, Hospitalist Service: On a weekly basis provide care for patients in a busy ER who are awaiting a bed on the hospital medicine service.

01/14-12/14   South Shore Hospital; Weymouth, MA
-Per Diem PA, Critical Care: On an occasional basis provide care for patients in one of three ICUs in a large community hospital.

6/06 to 05/13:   UMassMemorial Medical Center; Worcester, MA
-Lead PA (9/07-5/13): Memorial Campus Critical Care Unit: scheduling and oversight of 14 midlevel clinicians providing 24 hour care for 14 bed medical ICU, billing for services, performance of invasive procedures.
-CCOC (9/07-5/13): Critical Care Operations Committee member, global planning & oversight for organization of care and patient safety in 7 critical care units.
-*e*ICU (6/06-7/07): instrumental role in new program from first day in operation to its expansion to more than 100 beds on 3 campuses.

5/96 - 12/98 &   University Cardiology Foundation; Providence, RI
12-99 to 6/06:   -Provide all aspects of medical care for cardiac inpatients on 36-bed CCU/ICCU
-Perform triage/initial consultation for the entire floor from a variety of referral sources including the ER, medical floors, and outside hospitals.

12/98 -11-99:   Rhode Island Medical Imaging; Providence, RI
-Placement of venous access devices using image guidance, clinical evaluation & follow up of patients before & after both major & minor interventional procedures.

9/91 - 5/96:   Hospital of St. Raphael; New Haven, CT
-Hospital medicine team with 12 PAs integrated within a physician residency program affiliated with Yale medical school, rotated through specialty teaching services including cardiology, nephrology, oncology, geriatrics, & general medicine.
-Served one year appointment as Chief Physician Assistant.

Andrew Mackie, MPAS, PA-C

Email: a.mackie@neu.edu

EDUCATION

12/2012:   University of Nebraska PA Distance Learning Program
Masters Degree in Physician Assistant Studies
Masters Project: Critical Care of the Obstetric Patient

8/1991:   Yale University School of Medicine Physician Associate Program
Graduate level certificate
Honors recipient for thesis/paper requirement (Subject: National Health Care)
PA Class President

6/1989:   Harvard University - Bachelor of Liberal Arts in Extension Studies
Major: Natural Science

CERTIFICATIONS & LICENSURES

- Licensed by the State of Massachusetts (expires 3/2017)
- DEA (expires 1/2016)
- MCSR (expires 8/2015)
- NCCPA certified (expires 12/2016)
  - Scored in 96th percentile on most recent recertification exam (2010)
- BLS (expires 2/2017)
- ACLS (expires 3/2017)
- FCCS Certified Instructor (Fundamentals of Critical Care Support) 8/07